Enclosed for the Los Angeles Division is one Xerox set of the above items.

For the information of Los Angeles, [REDACTED] another well-known entertainer, received a similar threatening letter in Las Vegas, and it is believed the UNSUB is the same in both cases.

On 1/31/74, [REDACTED] advised SA [REDACTED] that [REDACTED]

The letter handwritten in ink reads as follows:

"1/19/74

"From: U. S. Armed Forces

"You are on a death list. The police cannot help you.

"If you wish to stay alive, go to the L. A. (SFV) Nike Missile Base for instructions.

The letter was written on the reverse side of a billing invoice dated 10/31/71, from the Monterrey Pharmacy, 12901 Riverside Drive, Sherman Oaks, California, and is addressed to [REDACTED] California.

The above letter was contained in a red and white U. S. Postal Service postage free envelope. A return mailing label glued on the front of the envelope bore the handprinted name "Sammy Davis, Jr., Harrah's, Reno, Nevada." No postmarks were noted on the envelope.

Also found inside the envelope was a small card bearing the name "Institute for Family Neurosis Research." Beneath this appears the handprinted name [REDACTED] The other side of the card bears the handprinting "KGIL, (213) 894-9191."

Reportedly KGIL is a radio station located in San Fernando (Los Angeles County), California, and [REDACTED] is a disc jockey affiliated with this station.

Another item contained in the envelope was a memographed sheet dated 12/4/73, bearing numerous well-known names and accusations. The bottom of the sheet lists the name of the editor as [REDACTED] and the sheet is signed by "Der Fuhrer."

On 1/31/74, this case was discussed with AUSA E. PIERRE GEZELIN at Reno, Nevada. GEZELIN was of the opinion that this matter constituted a violation of the Federal extortion statute.

The Latent Fingerprint Section of the Laboratory is requested to examine all of the enclosed items for fingerprint impressions. In this connection it should be noted that the contents of the envelope were handled by numerous people before being turned over to the FBI including SAMMY DAVIS, JR. and his staff, [REDACTED] 67D

The FBI Laboratory, by report dated February 14, 1974, concluded the handwriting on both the [REDACTED] and SALLY DAVIS, JR. letters were written by the same writer. Similarities were also noted in the handprinting, which indicated that they may have been prepared by the same person.

On February 26, 1974 the facts in this matter were discussed with Assistant U. S. Attorney EMILE PIERRE GEZELIN at Reno, Nevada. GEZELIN advised that he was of the opinion that the letters written by the subject to [REDACTED] and SALLY DAVIS, JR., do not constitute a violation of the Federal Extortion Statute and accordingly declined prosecution.
